The Dennis M. Jones Family Foundation Scholarship

The Dennis M. Jones Family Foundation primarily promotes the education of underprivileged youth with scholarships. Scholarships will be awarded based upon the following criteria.

Requirements/Restrictions

- Preference will be given to students from the St. Louis metropolitan area who demonstrate financial need (as determined by the FAFSA and documentation of other financial aid already received).
- Student must be enrolled full time in a Ranken associate's or bachelor's program. A full-time student is defined as being enrolled in a minimum of 12 credit hours each semester.
- Student must demonstrate academic ability as determined by the selection committee using application procedures.
- Student must have achieved the status of graduating high school senior, high school graduate, or GED graduate.

Application Procedures

Students must provide the following:

- A completed Ranken/Dennis M. Jones Family Foundation Scholarship Application.
- Official high school and/or college transcript(s).
- A FAFSA application must be completed.
- ACT scores or Ranken placement scores.
- A typed essay describing your reasons for enrolling at Ranken, why you chose your major, your goals, and background - skills, hobbies, volunteer works, etc.
- A letter of recommendation from a teacher, counselor, employer or another individual who is not a relative.
- Student may be asked to meet with members of the Ranken Scholarship Committee.

Selection Process

The Ranken Scholarship Committee will screen applications and verify financial need for eligible student applicants. Special consideration will be given to students from St. Louis city.

Prior scholarship recipients may re-apply for the Dennis M. Jones Family Foundation Scholarship in their second year. Current students must maintain a full-time status (12 hours) and a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5. In addition a Work Ethic grade of "Meets Expectations" (MEE) or better must be maintained.

Deadline for complete applications is June 1
