General Scholarship Application

(Application List)

This is the application for the General Scholarship Fund at Ranken Technical College. By completing the application on the reverse side of this paper and supplying the required documentation, you will be applying for all of the scholarships listed at the top of the page. All of the listed scholarships are Donor-Provided scholarships. Donor-Provided Scholarships exist through the generosity of the individuals and groups listed above to help students defray some of their educational costs. Listed below are some scholarship application hints/tips to help you submit your best work.

- Submit a complete application including, essay, recommendation and transcript.
- Remember-neatness counts, type or write legibly.
- Meet the deadline-late applications will not be considered.
- Check your grammar; let someone else edit your essay.
- Your essay should be your own original work-the Scholarship Committee can tell when it is not.
- Applying for scholarships does not guarantee you will be selected to receive a scholarship.
- Be patient, the review process of all submitted applications is lengthy and will not commence until the deadline passes.
- Remember your application is a reflection of you!
