

Robert A. Gau Endowed Scholarship For Industrial Technology

Robert A. Gau, Mechanical Drafting 1960, has established an endowed scholarship to provide assistance to Ranken Technical College Industrial Technology students who have demonstrated financial need. When fully funded this scholarship will cover the costs of tuition and tools. Recipients are responsible for the cost of books, fees and other expenses.

The scholarship is renewable for a second year if Ranken Technical College deems the student is making academic progress and approves the application. Ranken Technical College will have sole responsibility for selecting students to receive awards.
