

Are You A+ Eligible?

To be eligible for Missouri A+ money, a student must:

- Complete the FAFSA form, to apply online go to the website (www.fafsa.ed.gov). The Ranken Technical College school code is 012500
- Graduate from a designated A+ high school
- Maintain a cumulative 2.5 GPA or higher on a 4.0 grading scale
- Be enrolled as a full-time student

To qualify for the A+ Program, please submit the following documents to the Admissions Office:

- Official Missouri high school transcript with A+ seal
- A Valid drivers license must be presented, and a copy will be made
- An original birth certificate or passport must be presented, and a copy will be made
- For students who have attended another college, an official transcript is required to determine GPA eligibility.

A+ Tuition Breakdown for 2021-22 school year

Campus	In-District	Per Credit	Out-District	Per Credit
St. Louis	The St. Louis Community College district includes the City of St. Louis, St. Louis County and portions of Franklin and Jefferson counties which are part of the Meramec Valley R-3 and Rockwood R-6 school districts.	$122.00	In state but out of In-District	$171.00
Wentzville	A person whose residence is within the boundaries of St. Charles County (excluding St. Charles County residents who reside in and pay taxes to the Washington School District. Foristell students must bring in St. Charles County real estate tax receipt to receive in-district rates).	$106.00	In state but out of In-District	$159.00

Thank you for your interest in the A+ Program, Ranken is proud to be an A+ designated school. You can make the most of this opportunity.

*Architecture students must pursue an Associate of Applied Science or the Associate of Technology degree to qualify for the A+ program.