Disclosure of Scholarship Recipient Information and Donor Acknowledgment

As a condition of accepting a scholarship from Ranken Technical College, please be aware of the following:

1. Disclosure of Information to Donors

If you are selected to receive a scholarship, your name, program of study, and other relevant information (such as academic achievements or a brief biography) may be shared with the donor(s) who fund your scholarship. This information may also be used in college publications, recognition events, and press releases.

2. Thank You Letters

Recipients of scholarships may be asked or required to write a letter of thanks to the donor(s) who made the scholarship possible. These letters are an important way for recipients to express appreciation and for donors to learn about the impact of their gifts.

3. FERPA and Directory Information

Ranken Technical College designates certain information, including your name and awards received, as “directory information” under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). This means such information may be released unless you have formally requested to restrict its disclosure. If you do not wish for your information to be shared as described above, you must notify the Financial Aid Office in writing within two weeks of your enrollment or scholarship acceptance.

Consent and Acknowledgment

By signing and submitting this application, you acknowledge that you have read and understand the above information regarding the disclosure of your information to scholarship donors and the request for thank you letters. You authorize Ranken Technical College to share your information as described, unless you have opted out in writing.

I certify that all information supplied in this application is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.
